6. Report from Oxfordshire County Councillor for Launton

County Cllr Fulljames read correspondence from an Oxfordshire CC officer regarding maintenance of the roadway to the Playing fields and Social Club which suggested that all interested parties should come together to construct a plan for ongoing maintenance. The Chairman accepted that this was a reasonable suggestion but that OCC have always had responsibility for ongoing maintenance. More specifically, the point at issue is not ongoing maintenance but the repair of damage caused by heavy vehicle traffic during the recent works at the school.

7. Finance and Governance

- a. To confirm the resolution made in October 2010 (agenda item 9c) to donate £2000 to Launton Playing Fields Association towards the costs of providing a Multi Use Games Area, and to approve payment under the provision of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1976 s.19 (3)

Cllr Foster pointed out that the new facility was completed and being actively used already. The official opening was scheduled for 14th August.

The Chairman congratulated Cllr Foster for her contribution to the project.

Payment was agreed.

Proposed: Councillor Turner
All in favour.

Seconded: Councillor Stubbings
